Description
Karma Tracker for Reddit is a tool to let you finally keep track of those precious imaginary internet points. You've worked so hard to earn them – why not enjoy them even more? Now you can reminisce over memories of fond comments as you gaze on the plotted growth of your points over time. Or maybe you want to know which subreddits are your true friends? Now you can see a ranking of the subreddits that treat you with the adoration you deserve, the subreddits that reward your hard work with the most points. With Karma Tracker for Reddit, counting your spoils has never been easier!
